We agree to the stipulation I sent around and with that we can file an extension in the hopes the parties file the stipulation before Friday.

So if that's a problem, we can file a motion for an extension opposed with the good cause being I was sick last week.

Regarding your request for a four-day extension "related to Quantum's opposition to MTD," Valve will agree to the extension if (1) QTI agrees to file an opposition brief (instead of another amended complaint) to Valve's motion to dismiss by April 19, and (2) Symbology will not use the extension against Valve when opposing Valve's motion to expedite in that case.
